

Sinclair
Broadcasting Group's behavior on the Kerry documentary is a low point in broadcast responsibility. I see no attempt to serve the public interest by airing
such unbalanced and
unanswered drivel.

If the FCC were truly involved in protecting the public interest the Sinclair Group would have some serious
explaining to do.